

Forgiving Heart: Week One

I hope you enjoy this devotional designed for ages 4-8 to teach your children how to be forgiving. Read the italic section or paraphrase with your children to fit their age level.

- Introduction: Jesus has the most beautiful heart in the whole world! He shows great character, like being kind and helpful to others. Can you name some other character traits of Jesus? [kind, helpful, loving, responsible] We want to be like Jesus and have great character too!
- Define Forgiving: Today we are going to learn one of His character traits. Jesus is forgiving! Forgiving means that when someone hurts our feelings or is mean to us, we don't stay mad at them. We tell them we forgive them and we love them anyway.
- Give Examples: Can you think of a time when someone hurt your feelings or made you mad? Did you forgive that person? Was it hard to stop being angry?
- Learn from Jesus: Let's read in the Bible how Jesus has a forgiving heart, so we can learn from Him to be forgiving!

“When they came to the place called the Skull, they crucified him there, along with the criminals—one on his right, the other on his left. Jesus said, “Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing.” (NIV)

Read Luke 23:33-34: Jesus Forgives The Soldiers

- Questions to Consider:
 - Who did Jesus forgive in this story?*
 - What were the soldiers doing to Jesus?*
 - Would it be hard to forgive someone who was hurting you like that?*
 - How do you think Jesus was able to forgive the soldiers?*
- Summary: Jesus forgave the soldiers and He forgave all of us by dying on the cross because He loves us so much! If Jesus can do that, then He can help us to forgive others too!
- Prayer: Let's pray together and thank Jesus for showing us how to have a forgiving heart.

Dear Jesus, thank you that you have such a forgiving heart. Thank you that You forgive us because You love us so much. Please help us learn to forgive like you. Amen.

Forgiving Heart: Week Two

➤ Let's Review: We are learning about Jesus' beautiful heart and how He is forgiving. What does it mean to forgive? Do you think God wants us to forgive every time someone hurts us?

➤ Learn from the Bible: Let's read Colossians 3:13 to see what the Bible says about forgiving.

"Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you." (NIV)

According to the verse, why should we forgive others?

How did Jesus forgive you?

➤ Bringing It Home: I am going to give you some scenarios, and let's decide how you can be forgiving in each situation.

Your brother asks to borrow your favorite game. He accidentally breaks it and tells you he is sorry. What should you do?

Some friends at school are teasing you about your hair cut. You feel badly and tell them you don't like that. What else should you do?

Your dad tells you he will take you bowling on the weekend, but then he ends up having to go on a trip for work, and you are upset. He tells you he is sorry and will take you when he gets back. What should you do?

Your cousin is playing ball with you and accidentally hits the ball right in your eye. It hurts so badly you scream. He tells you he is sorry and didn't mean to do it. What should you do?
